KAYAMANAN NG LAHI

Founded in 1990, Kayamanan Ng Lahi Philippine Folk Arts is committed to presenting, promoting, and preserving the richness and diversity of Philippine culture through dance, music and song, to educate, entertain and enrich. Under the leadership of Joel Jacinto, Barbara Ele and Ave Jacinto, Kayamanan's artistic approach is based on anthropological research, resulting in a strong and appropriate translation between traditional folk and folkloric Philippine dance and music forms and styles—from the village to the stage.

KAYAMANAN PAMANA MEDIA PROJECT

Under the direction of special program director Giselle Tongi-Walters of Pamana Media Project, youth from Kayamanan Ng Lahi, ages 7 to 17, were trained by local media professionals to develop, shoot and edit short documentaries that explore their identity as students of Philippine folk arts. Through documenting the stories of their immigrant families, cultural traditions and community, media became the vehicle for self-expression and self-identification.

The Pamana Media Project was made possible with support from California Humanities, a nonprofit partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Visit calhum.org.
